Lawless Entertainment Announces New Representation Deal With Noble Productions, Ltd.

Lawless Entertainment, a Los Angeles based international production and distribution consulting firm is proud to announce a new deal with Noble Productions, Ltd. to distribute the feature film "Noble Things." Noble Productions Ltd. in association with Lava box Entertainment Group has engaged Lawless to assist in the distribution (in all media) of this property.

Noble Things is the story of down-and-out country singer, Jimmy Wayne Collins, who returns home to the piney woods of Southeast Texas to face his imprisoned brother, his dying father and the demons he left behind.

"I am so proud to be associated with this beautiful film and its very talented producers and cast," said Cathy Malatesta, President of Lawless Entertainment. "In the midst of a very difficult situation (Hurricane Katrina) they were able to create an exceptional film that will no doubt be a global success story for years to come."

The film, co-written/directed by Brett Moses and Dan McMellen, and produced by Moses, Ruben Neubauer and McMellen, assembles an all-star cast featuring Michael Parks, (Grindhouse, Kill Bill); award-winning country music star Lee Ann Womack in her breakout feature role; Ryan Hurst (Sons of Anarchy, Remember the Titans, Saving Private Ryan); Brett Moses (Buffy the Vampire Slayer), Dominique Swain (Alpha Dog, Lolita); Ron Canada (Weeds, National Treasure); and James Parks (True Blood, 24, Grindhouse).

Multi-talented composer and producer, Clay Walker, has been tagged to produce the film's soundtrack. Walker's pedigree boasts a resounding 31 titles on Billboard's singles chart and four platinum-selling albums. Country music legend Tracy Byrd and others also make special appearances in Noble Things.
